

THEATRE ARTS ADMIN COLLECTIVE

February Programme

7th - 9th February @ 8pm | R80

CONFESSION SESSIONS

DIRECTED BY MEGAN FURNISS
CREATED WITH MEL MWEVI, MOTHEO
MODISA, RENDANI MUFAMADI AND TRENT
ROWE

In a dystopian South Africa, even the superheroes are dysfunctional. When friends, colleagues and family come together to mourn and remember slain Superhero Eskombuso, we find out more about them too. Confession Sessions is hilarious, moving, and scarily familiar: an original, contemporary, mockumentary-style theatre piece.

11th - 16th February @ 8pm | R120

THE TREE SNAKE

DIRECTED BY REGINA MALAN PERFORMED
BY BONOLO MAKHELE, LIZANNE PETERS,
MARZET PIETERSE AND AVASHAN SINGH

A man arrives home late one night to find far more than he is able to handle. His apartment has been trashed and the culprit is staring right at him with menacing dark eyes. Not sure of how to react, he makes a decision that will inevitably lead to his own silence.

26th February - 3rd March @ 8pm
R120

ORDINARY DAYS

WRITTEN BY ADAM GWON
DIRECTED BY BYRON BURE
PERFORMED BY DEAN DE KLERK, EMILE
HAGER, KIRSEN MURPHY AND JOSIE PIERS
PRESENTED BY SQUARE PEGGED
PRODUCTIONS

A Broadway hit, Ordinary Days is an honest musical set in New York that follows the lives of four characters, ultimately exploring how we are all intricately connected. With an experienced cast, this musical is sung acoustically but for the sole support of legendary music director Kurt Haupt on piano.
